

Thank You!

Perhaps you sent a lovely card,
e-mails, messages or called.
Perhaps you said prayers for us,
we felt them and appreciate them all.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words,
That anyone could say.
Perhaps you could not be here today but
Just thought of us on this day -
Whatever you did to console our hearts,
We thank you so much

Eulogy

Vashti Jones, nee Boullear, fondly known to many as Sis. Jones, was born on March 16, 1926 in Bagotsville, West Bank Demerara, Guyana to the late Luther Boullear and Rachael Thomas. She was preceded in death by her husband, Fitzgerald Jones to whom she was married for 36 years. This union produced eight children - Elaine Grannum (Guyana), Yvonne Jones (USA), Alma Jones, who preceded her in death, Jennifer Wilson (Antigua), Claudette DeCruise (USA), Charles & Wayne Jones (Guyana) and Jacqueline Givens (Antigua).

Vashti was the grandmother of Kay, Colette, Daren, Shauna, Juanita, Tamesha, Otto and 12 others; great grandmother of 25 and great great grandmother of two. She was the third of five children who all preceded her in death. Sis. Jones attended the Goed-Intent Primary School and although she only completed the 6th grade she was, even then, wise beyond her years.

Vashti endured ill-treatment growing up, and other physical and emotional hardships but she never allowed these to change her, or to cause her to become bitter. She refused to let her bad experiences negatively affect her, to rob her of her humanity.

Vashti broke that generational curse and demonstrated its demise by the example she set as a woman, wife, mother, friend, listener or mentor. As a result of her abuse, she prayed and asked God that should she ever have children, He would spare her life to see them grow so that they would not have to endure what she went through. God, in His mercy, answered her prayers and blessed her to see, not only her children, but four generations.

Vashti migrated to the USA in 1986 where she continued her ministry of giving, she was always the first to arrive whenever someone was in need; she gave whether the need was physical, emotional or spiritually but above all else she gave of herself, to both the young and the old. She was a strong woman of God, who though abhorring abuse of any kind did not hesitate to use the rod of correction, an experience none of us wanted to repeat (her left hand).

Vashti has completed her journey; she has run her race and finished her course, leaving us a rich legacy of love, service, responsibility and co-operation. She is now absent from the body and present with The Lord.
