The Biblical Basis for Baptism

I. Background

The New Testament records for us two ordinances instituted by Jesus Christ Himself – The Lord’s Supper and Baptism. The significance of these ordinances is emphasized by the fact that they are each clear command to the church, and therefore, apply to all who believe. Each ordinance has a material element: in Communion, bread and wine; in Baptism, water. In each ordinance, the material element distinguishes it from its spiritual reality - the material element of each points to a spiritual reality, distinct from and more significant than itself.

As material signs they are _____ , _____ , and _____.

As spiritual realities they are _____ , _____ , and _____.

II. Baptism in the New Testament

A. John the Baptist - a tangible link between the Old and New Testaments (Isaiah 40:3-5; Malachi 3:1; Matthew 11:7-14). John proclaimed a baptism of repentance, and baptized upon one’s profession of _____ (Matthew 3:1-12; Mark 1:2-5; Luke 3:3-8; John 1:29-31).

B. The Lord Jesus Christ submitted Himself to baptism (Matthew 3:13-17; Mark 1:9-11; Luke 3:21-22; John 1:32-34). Why did Jesus come to be baptized? To fulfill the righteous requirements of God (Matthew 3:15).

It was an act of:

1. _____ - As Messiah with the people He came to deliver.

2. _____ - A public statement of His dedication to fully do the will of His Father. Also, as a foreshadowing of His death and resurrection which would make salvation possible.

C. Jesus authorized His disciples to start baptizing (John 3:22-26). This baptism was a baptism of repentance and faith in Christ Himself (John 3:28-36).

D. Jesus Himself did not baptize (John 4:1-2). Why? If Jesus had baptized, it may have directed the focus from the _____ of baptism to _____ was doing the baptizing.

E. Christ commanded the church to baptize (Matthew 28:18-20). This was an _____ not an _____. Those who are made members of the Church by faith in Christ are themselves to be the recipients of baptism.

F. The pattern of the New Testament Church. Acts 2:37-41; 8:12; 8:30-38; 16:13-15; 16:29-34; 18:8; 9:18-19.

The consistent practice of the early Church was that as people heard the Word preached, they responded in faith, they confessed that belief publicly by being baptized, and became part of the life of the local body of believers. If we would obey our Lord and conform our practice to the New Testament pattern, we must do the same.

III. What does baptism mean?

We might first say what it does NOT mean. IT IS NOT WASHING AWAY OF SINS. Sin cannot be washed away by water; rather, “the blood of Jesus purifies us from all sin” (1 John 1:7).

NOR IS BAPTISM THE MEANS OF BECOMING A Christian. The only way we do so is by grace through faith in the work of Christ alone (Ephesians 2:8-9; Titus 3:4-7), not by having a ritual performed upon us. So, what does baptism mean? Four things:

A. A _____ in Christ (Act 2:38, 41).

Baptism is an _____ and _____ sign of an _____ and _____ change that God has already worked in a believers heart. Significantly, baptism always follows upon the personal confession of one’s faith. This explains why we do not practice infant baptism, as a tiny baby cannot have placed his/her faith in Christ.

B. An expression of our _____ with Christ (Romans 6:3-4).

Baptism illustrates our spiritual union and identification with the death and resurrection of the Lord Jesus Christ; that we are to consider ourselves dead to sin and alive to God. Being immersed in water symbolizes having died to our sin; and being raised out of the water that we have been raised to a brand new life in Christ. Again: salvation is NOT CONVEYED in baptism; it simply illustrates that spiritual transaction which has already taken place.

C. An indication of our _____ to Christ.

Being baptized is an act of obedience to His commands and submission to His Lordship. Jesus always qualified a true love for Him by a willingness to obey what He said (Luke 6:46-49; John 14:15, 23-24; 1 John 5:2-3).

D. A look forward to our _____ with Christ.

In baptism, a person says, "I'm going somewhere." The believer has an ultimate hope of being with Christ (Philippians 3:13-14; Hebrews 12:1-2; 1 John 3:2-3).

Sample Testimony

Each candidate is expected to be able to share his/her testimony with anyone. Below is an example of what your testimony should be once you have had a genuine Salvation experience.

Hi, my name is Carl Anderson and I have accepted Jesus Christ as my Lord and Savior.

As long as I can remember I have always had a fear of God and the desire to pray to Him. I thought about heaven and hell, wanting to go to heaven. As a young teen I went to church. After a few years I felt it was not relevant to my life and stopped going. When I was 22 years old, I was invited to a Christmas concert by the person who is now my wife. This church was different. For the first time in my life I heard that my sin had separated me from God and from going to heaven. They also said that Jesus Christ died for my sins. I knew I was a sinner and this gift sounded too good to be true. I immediately prayed and asked Christ to be my Savior and Lord. I spent the following year beginning to understand the commitment I made. The Lord has been helping me to grow in my faith since then. He has taught me through the preaching and study of His Word and fellowship with other believers. I count it a privilege to serve Jesus Christ.
